

NC Cooperative Extension & NC Cattlemen's Association

Beef Quality Assurance Workshop

Saturday, July 23, 2016

1:00 PM - 2:30 PM

An Optional Session
Held in Conjunction with the NC BEEF System Field Day
Center for Environmental Farming Systems
Cherry Research Farm
701 Stevens Mill Rd, Goldsboro, NC

AGENDA

- NC BEEF System Field Day Stops. Registration on site. 7:45 to noon. All tour stops incorporate some aspect of the NC Beef Quality Assurance Program.
- Lunch (12:00-1:00) – Provided to all Field Day participants
- Optional BQA Supplemental Training and Certification Opportunity in the Service Building (Limited to 40. Pre-registration recommended)*
- BQA Program Update (1:00-1:30) – Adam Ross, Livestock Extension Agent and Regional BQA Coordinator for Eastern NC. Duplin County Cooperative Extension
- Update on Anaplasmosis and Bovine Leucosis Virus in Eastern NC (1:30-2:15). Harrison Dudley, NCSU College of Veterinary Medicine and NC Cooperative Extension
- BQA Certification Test (2:15-2:30). Only required for producers wanting BQA Certification

The session is free. The fee for BQA Certification will be $15.00 for members, or $40.00 for non-members of the NC Cattlemen's Association (includes one year NCCA membership).

To register, use this link and fill out the form

<http://goo.gl/forms/bogN8cLE5qM8TiGO2>

or Call Your Local Extension Agent

NC State University
A&T State University
COOPERATIVE EXTENSION

Empowering People • Providing Solutions